

Stephen Weston is a seasoned technology leader with over 20 years of experience. As a Vice President at Canadian Tire Corporation (CTC), Stephen leads the Cyber Security, Enterprise Architecture, and Project Management Office practices. In over 10 years at CTC, Stephen has held a variety of technology leadership roles, and is known for driving strategic change and innovation through the adoption of leading edge technologies and approaches. Stephen began his career as an application developer at Electronica Data Systems (EDS), where he later worked as a consultant leading initiatives for clients in the automotive and financial sectors.